CHICAGO, December 5, 1871.

To the Officers of the Germania, Hanover, Niagara and Republic Fire Ins. Co's of New York:

GENTLEMEN: The course pursued by your Companies in the adjustment and payment of our own claims, and so far as we know, all claims for losses in the great fire in Chicago, has been so highly honorable, prompt and straightforward, and marked by such apparent desire to deal justly towards all parties, under all circumstances, that we desire voluntarily to acknowledge it to the business public. We conceive that no stronger test could be made, both of the responsibility and of the integrity of an Insurance organization, than yours has passed through here successfully and creditably. With an unimpaired Capital and undiminished responsibility, and a record for equitable settlement, certainly surpassed by none, we congratulate you on the career of future prosperity, to which your actions here have so justly entitled you, and remain,

OTHELLO II.

A Hapless Desdemona in Illinois.

[From the Waverly (Morgan county, Ills.) Times, Sept. 26.]

At a festive social gathering in a country house near Waverly, Ills., during the Christmas holidays of 1870, a young farmer of the neighborhood and the particular rural belle who was supposed to reciprocate his partiality for her, attracted the attention of the embarrassed company by unequivocal signs of a serious breach of good feeling between them. The arrival of the girl under the escort of an admirer whom she had previously treated with marked indifference, and the subsequent appearance of the yeomen alone in an apparently sullen humor, were the first occasions of surprise to the assembled merry-makers; but the common feeling of wonder grew still more serious when, upon the coquette's curt refusal to dance with her lately favored swain, the latter denounced her in round terms and a high voice as a faithless flirt, and threatened to cast her cavalier of the evening from the nearest window. The insulted woman burst into tears, angry words passed between the two rivals, and when finally the remonstrances of older friends induced the now furious young farmer to retire from the scene, the pleasure of the guests had been so effectually destroyed that the whole company soon broke up in something like a panic. What had caused the alienation of the lover and this ensuing scene was never known in Waverly. Rumor explained it in various ways, and speculative comment on the subject varied with public fancy until the spring of the following year, when the heroine of the affair was married to the person who had been her companion at the merry-making. From the night of the latter, her so strangely discarded lover never spoke to her again, and, soon after her marriage, himself married a young woman to whom he had paid some earlier attention, and moved to Evansville, Ind. Here he and his bride lived in seeming harmony, if not passionate devotion, until toward the Christmas holidays again, when a dreary change appeared to come over both of them, and the few acquaintances they had made in their new home believed that some secret trouble had befallen them. While this impression remained the young wife was found dead in her bed one morning of what a coroner's jury pronounced disease of the heart. A fore-knowledge of the fatal affliction had, it is thought, been the cause of the gloom noticed in both husband and wife, and the former, in his increased depression and silent dogged ness under his bereavement received the commiseration of those to whom he deigned no expression of reeling than an obvious desire not to be questioned about it. There was a mystery here, however, even as there had been in the very different affair at Waverly. The claim, in community, of the widowed moved again, some decence out of Evansville, where, as the Journal of the latter place relates, he has recently died, literally on a bed of heart and remorse, after confessing a startling confession to a [illegible] woman who, from motive [illegible] tenderly attended and soothed his [illegible hour. His wife, whom he had ma[illegible] a charge or crime against another [illegible] ve to herself, confessed to him [illegible] months after her marriage, that, in the desperate hope of winning him back to his former allegiance to her she had turned his later sweetheart against him by managing to introduce one of his old, undated letters to herself into the envelope of a letter he had intended for her rival, and pretending, when called to account by the latter, that the writer was playing them both false at the same time. She had intercepted the true letter and changed it, and told this ingenious falsehood about it, with results above described. Upon hearing the confession, extorted from her by remorse and a consciousness that she was still unloved, her husband declared that he would never forgive her while he lived, and warned her to leave him before his hatred would do that for which he would never be forgiven. She did not heed his warning, hoping, desperately, perhaps, that her love might yet plead for her; and, according to his own recent dying confession, he smothered her to death while she slept.

WHILE standing upon the wharf of the American Steamboat Company, at Providence, R. I., a few days since, awaiting the departure of the 5th Rhode Island regiment and battery F, Veteran Association, for Rocky Point, two veterans met. They shook hands heartily, when one said to the other, "Why, how is this that you are wearing a weed? I did not know that you had lost any near friend." With a twinkle of his eye the bland answer came, "In mourning for Horace."

James Gordon Bennett, late editor of the New York Herald, left a large bequest to his wife, but on condition that she remained a widow. This condition it is said, will be set aside by the court. It has been judicially decided over and over again that all conditions in restraints to marriage are opposed to public policy, and are simply null and void. Mrs. Bennett is much younger than her late husband, and may marry again.

The Duke Alexis has extended his half million tour to Hong Kong.

THE PLATFORM.

The following is the Platform adopted by the National Republican Convention at Philadelphia:

The Republican party of the United States, assembled in National Convention in the city of Philadelphia, on the 5th and 6th days of June, 1872, again declares its faith, appeals to its history, and announces its position upon the questions before the country.

1. During the eleven years of its supremacy it has accepted with grand courage the solemn duties of the time. It suppressed a gigantic rebellion, emancipated 4,000,000 slaves, decreed the equal citizenship of all and established universal suffrage, exhibiting unparalleled magnanimity. It criminally punished no man for political offense, and warmly welcomed all who proved their loyalty by obeying the laws and dealing justly with their neighbors. It has steadily decreased with a firm hand the resultant disorders of the great war, and indicated a wise policy towards the Indians. The Pacific railroad and similar vast enterprises have been generally aided and successfully conducted. The public lands have been freely given to actual settlers, immigration protected and encouraged, and a full acknowledgment of naturalized citizens' rights secured from European powers. A uniform national currency has been provided, repudiation frowned down, the national credit sustained under the most extraordinary burdens, and new bonds negotiated at lower rates. The revenues have been carefully collected and honestly applied; despite the annual large reductions of the rates of taxation, the public debt has been reduced during Gen. Grant's Presidency at the rate of one hundred millions of dollars a year; a great financial crisis has been averted, and peace and plenty prevail throughout the land.—Menacing foreign difficulties have been peacefully and honorably compromised, and the honor and power of the nation kept in high respect throughout the world. This glorious record of the past is the party's best pledge for the future. We believe the people will not intrust the government to any party or combination of men composed chiefly of those who have resisted every step of this beneficial progress.

2. Complete liberty and exact equality in the enjoyment of all civil, political and public rights should be established and effectually maintained throughout the Union by efficient and appropriate State and federal legislation. Neither the law nor its administration should admit of any discrimination in respect to any citizen by reason of race, creed, color or previous condition of servitude.

3. The recent amendments to the National Constitution should be cordially sustained, because they are right, not merely tolerated because they are the law, and should be carried out, according to their spirit, by appropriate legislation, the enforcement of which can be safely trusted only to the party that secured those amendments.

4. The national government should seek to maintain an honorable peace with all nations, protecting its citizens everywhere, and sympathizing with all peoples who strive for greater liberty.

5. Any system of civil service under which the subordinate positions of the government are considered rewards for mere party zeal is fitly demoralizing, and we therefore favor a reform of the system by laws which shall abolish the evils of patronage, and make honesty, efficiency and fidelity essential qualifications for public position, without practically creating a life tenure of office.

6. We are opposed to the further grants of public lands to corporations and monopolies, and demand that the national domain be set apart for free homes for the people.

7. The annual revenues, after paying current debts, should furnish a moderate sinking fund for the reduction of the principal, and the revenue, except so much as may be derived from a tax on tobacco and liquors, should be raised by duties on importations, the duties of which should be so adjusted as to aid in securing remunerative wages to labor, and promote the industries, growth and prosperity of the whole country.

8. We hold in undying honor the soldiers and sailors whose valor saved the Union. Their pensions are a sacred debt of the nation, and the widows and orphans of those who died for their country are entitled to the care of a generous and grateful people, and we favor such additional legislation as will extend the bounty of the government to all our soldiers and sailors who were honorably discharged, and who in the line of duty became disabled, without regard to the length of time or cause of such discharge.

9. The doctrine of Great Britain and other European powers, concerning allegiance, "once a subject, always a subject," having at last through the efforts of the Republican party, been abandoned; and the American idea of an individual's right to transfer his allegiance having been accepted by European nations, it is the duty of our government to guard with jealous care the rights of adopted citizens against the assumption of unauthorized claims by their former governments, and we urge continual and careful encouragement and protection to voluntary immigration.

10. The franking privilege ought to be abolished and the way prepared for a speedy reduction in the rates of postage.

11. Among the questions which press for attention is that which concerns the relations of capital and labor, and the Republican party recognize the duty of so shaping legislation as to secure full protection and the amplest field for capital, and for labor, the creator of capital, the largest opportunities, and a just share of the mutual profits of these two great servants of civilization.

12. We hold that Congress and the President have only fulfilled an imperative duty in their measures for the suppression of violent and treasonable organizations in certain lately rebellious regions, and for the protection of the ballot-box, and therefore are entitled to the thanks of the nation.

13. We denounce the repudiation of the public debt, in any form or disguise, as a national crime, and we witness with pride the reduction of the principle of the debt and upon the rates of interest upon the balance, and we confidently expect that our excellent national currency will be perfected by the speedy resumption of specie payments.

14. The Republican party is mindful of its obligations to the loyal women of America for their noble devotion to the cause of freedom, and their admission to wider fields of usefulness is received with satisfaction; and the demands of any class of citizens for additional rights should be treated with respectful consideration.

15. We heartily approve the actions of Congress in extending amnesty to those lately in rebellion, and rejoice in the growth of peace and fraternal feeling throughout the land.

16. The Republican party propose to respect the rights reserved by the people themselves as carefully as the powers delegated by them to State and to federal government. It disapproves of a resort to unconstitutional laws for the purpose of removing evils by interference with rights not surrendered by the people to either the State or national government.

17. It is the duty of the general government to adopt such measures as will tend to encourage American commerce and ship building.

18. We believe that the modest patriotism the earnest purpose, sound judgment, practical wisdom, incorruptible integrity and illustrious services of Ulysses S. Grant have commended him to the hearts of the American people, and with him at our head we start to-day on a new march to victory.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

℞ No one remedy is louder called for by the necessities of the American people than a sure and safe cure for Fever and Ague. Such we are now enabled to offer, with a perfect certainty that it will eradicate the disease, and with assurance, founded on proof, that no harm can arise from its use in any quantity.

That which protects from or prevents this disorder must be of immense service in the communities where it prevails. Prevention is better than cure; for the patient escapes the risk which he must run in violent attacks of this baleful distemper. This "CURE" expels the miasmatic poison of Fever and Ague from the system, and prevents the development of the disease, if taken on the first approach of its premonitory symptoms. A great superiority of this remedy over any other ever discovered for the speedy and certain cure of Intermittents is, that it contains no Quinine or mineral; consequently it produces no quinism or other injurious effects whatever upon the constitution. Those cured by it are left as healthy as if they had never had the disease.

Fever and Ague is not alone the consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its irritation, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spleen, Hysterics, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, and derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause, put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "CURE" expels the poison from the blood, and consequently cures them all alike. It is an invaluable protection to immigrants and persons travelling or temporarily residing in the malarious districts. If taken occasionally or daily while exposed to the infection, that will be excreted from the system, and cannot accumulate in sufficient quantity to ripen into disease. Hence it is even more valuable for protection than cure; and few will ever suffer from Intermittents if they avail themselves of the protection this remedy affords.

For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity, and producing many truly remarkable cures, where other medicines fail.

...Hon. Henry Wilson speaks in St. Louis to-morrow evening.

TO-DAY.

When the sun rose this morning it was the signal for the opening of the most important political battle which has been fought in this country for years. In four States of the Union the two great parties of the country, after months of preparation, are to-day engaged in a trial of strength, while the people of the remaining States are waiting in breathless anxiety to hear the result of the contest, for the side which gains the victory to-day will have a large per cent. in its favor in the general engagement to take place along the whole line in November. What the nature of the news will be which the telegraph brings to-night can of course only be conjectured as yet, but we have an abiding faith in the honesty and patriotism of the American people, and a well-defined belief that a magnificent victory for the Republican party will be announced to-morrow morning.

THE Georgia State election, over which the Greeley organs are so jubilant, gives us a faint idea of what might be expected through the South if there was such a thing possible as the defeat of the Republican national ticket. At various leading cities the polls were taken possession of by armed rebels; Republican voters were driven away and, in some cases, murdered; none but rebels were permitted to act as election clerks or managers; and where precincts were known to be overwhelmingly Republican in sentiment, no voting was allowed to take place at all. If this is the way our Southern Greeleyites are going in for "reconciliation," a little of it will go a great ways. A repetition of such scenes in November should cause the entire electoral vote of the State to be thrown out of the canvass.

APROPOS to the election to-day in Pennsylvania, it should be generally understood that the actual test of the strength of the two political parties will be on the candidates for Congress-at-Large, three of whom are to be elected. The Republican candidates are Schofield, Albright and Todd; the Greeleyite candidates are Vaux, Hopkins and Wright. The vote on Governor will not be a fair test, for the reason that several Republican papers and leaders in the State strongly oppose Gen. Hartranft, the Republican candidate; but on the ticket for Congressmen-at-Large the entire Republican party is united, and this will, therefore, be the test.

FROM LONG CREEK.

LONG CREEK, Oct. 5, 1872.

EDITORS REPUBLICAN: It was announced by posters that the mighty tidal wave would sweep over this township on last Monday evening, and bring on its crest Buckingham and Odor who would address the illiberal confederates on the occasion. The wave came but Buckingham didn't, though W. A. Barnes and Odor did, there being about 45 persons present, including several Republicans and a lot of boys.—The Doctor being introduced proceeded to give his reasons why he couldn't support Grant for the Presidency, chief of which was that the Legislature of Arkansas had voted money to build a railroad, and was to issue a certain amount of bonds when ten miles of the road was built, and so on for every ten miles until the road was completed. A company went to work to build the road, laid down ten miles of the track, received the bonds therefor, took up the track, laid down ten miles more and received the bonds for that, and so on until they completed the whole road—with the ten miles of track—received the bonds for building the road, then took up the iron and sold that—but didn't state what Grant had to do with it; but left the impression on the minds of his hearers that it was because he, Grant, didn't interfere to stop it.

The reason why he supported Greeley was because he was in favor of universal amnesty and universal suffrage, and the South had accepted him in good faith.—When asked what the rebel General Hodge meant, when he said they, the rebels, would gain by Mr. Greeley's election what they lost by the rebellion, he said he could not tell; Hodge might possibly have thought so, but the speaker thought Mr. Greeley had satisfied them on that point in his Louisville speech.

After the Doctor closed his remarks, Mr. Odor being called to the floor, arose and with grave dignity made the astounding announcement that there were sixty million officeholders in this government; being corrected, he thought he had got it a little too high; it may be that their objection is that there are so few instead of so many, then their friends could all get an office, but they do not say what they are going to do about so many offices, put their friends in if they can elect Greeley, but they will not make a single office less than there is. He said it was a mighty bitter pill at first to support Greeley, but he was glad he did it, for it had cured him of dyspepsia. The Chappaquack Doctor created one disease to cure another; it has left his stomach and gone to the head, and now he has Greeley on the brain. One of his objections to Grant was that the General in command of the district had appointed a Legislature for the State of Georgia, while Dr. Barnes objected because Grant did not interfere with a State legislature.—Could an angel satisfy men so determined not to be satisfied? Consistency is a jewel that will never be found in the Greeley party. We are reminded of what the Savior once said to the Jews, "The will of your father ye will do," etc.; the will of Greeley, their father, they will do; when he speaketh inconsistently he speaketh of his own; he was inconsistent from the beginning, and the father of inconsistency.—Mr. Odor said he would go down South and adopt the Lord's plan of bringing back the rebels, and not that of the devil; he would preach peace on earth and good will to men, and some of the Greeley elders said amen! Mr. Odor should remember the loudest kind of preaching is practice; he should not practice so faithfully the devil's plan in calling Republicans thieves, fools and liars, while preaching peace on earth and good will to men down South, where it does him no good.

Some of the Democrats in speaking of their meeting to their Republican friends, speak very highly of Dr. B.'s speech, but not so highly of Mr. Odor's; this is the unkindest cut of all; while some of the Republicans think if he was to come back again there would not be a Greeley vote in the township.

Yours truly, A FARMER.

PROPHESIES CONCERNING TO-DAY'S ELECTIONS.

HARTRANFT'S ELECTION CONFIDENTLY EXPECTED.

INDIANA SAID TO BE SAFE FOR BROWN.

Preparations for Preventing Illegal Voting.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—The Star, writing from the best information received by the National Committee and prominent politicians here, says: As was the case before the September elections, but parties express unbounded confidence of victory; the results showed that the confidence of the Republicans was well founded, while that of their opponents seems to have been based on rose-colored hopes, rather than on any sound data or good judgment. There is no good reason to doubt that the Republican estimates now are assured and carefully made, as they were for September, and there is no reason why more confidence should be placed in liberal estimates than in their discounting their local disaffections in Pennsylvania, divisions among the Germans in Ohio, and close divisions of parties in Indiana. It seems not out of the bounds to expect that the Republicans will carry Pennsylvania to-morrow, by not less than fifteen thousand majority on the test question of Judge of the Supreme Court and Congressman-at-Large, electing Hartranft at the same time by a fair majority, and that they will carry Ohio by at least twelve thousand majority, and Indiana by from two to three thousand majority.

The Star has the following special this afternoon from Philadelphia: The election to-morrow is the only thing thought of and talked of. There is a general stand-still in business, and every one is preparing for to-morrow. So far as this city is concerned, the canvass of the Republicans is the most thorough and systematic ever made. There are few Liberal Republicans in the State, and if an unobjectionable man had been placed in nomination for Governorship the Republicans would sweep the State by at least 30,000 majority.

There seems to be no doubt, however, of Hartranft's election. In pool sales he is the choice by 100 to eighty. Even bets are made that he will have 10,000 majority in the State. Buckalew is expected to come to this city with 5,000 majority, and Hartranft, it is said, will carry this city by 15,000 majority. Some put it as high as 17,000, and none lower than 10,000. These are the calculations of the Republican Committee. The Democrats, on the other hand, claim that Buckalew will come to the city with 20,000, and that the city will not give Hartranft 10,000 majority, thus electing Buckalew by 10,000. The indications are that the Republican estimate is a correct one, and betting men are using it as their basis of speculation.

The total registration in the city is 162,000, an increase of 30,000 over last year, when the State ticket had 12,000 majority in the city. The Democrats have been demoralized in the city, and have aimed their efforts to the State. The Republicans have taken advantage of this, and their work will certainly make Hartranft successful. That the Democracy have colonized a large number of men from Baltimore and New York in midnight districts there is no doubt.

The Republicans, however, have organized a strong detective force, which has been sent to watch and prevent sporting men from voting. Sporting men from all over the country are here, with John Morrisey and John Chamberlain at their head. There are regular pool sales established, the same as at the horse-racing, and it is estimated that a quarter of a million of dollars will change hands on the result.

Information was received here, by the authorities, through their detectives, of a formidable movement to-day among Baltimore roughs, looking to a riot in Philadelphia. Governor Geary was advised by telegraph of all details of the plan, and it will doubtless be thwarted.

FROM NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, October 7.—It is reported that Wm. Butler Duncan refuses to run for the Mayoralty, and that Abraham R. Lawrence will probably be nominated by Tammany. The Committee on Nomination held a session to-day to meet the Liberal Committee to-morrow, when the combined nominations for the various city offices will be arranged.

FROM INDIANA.

INDIANAPOLIS, October 7.—The campaign for the election closes to-night with large meetings of both parties.—Ex-Senator Hendricks, Hon. Joseph E. McDonald, and Hon. J. C. Robinson, of Illinois, spoke at the Democratic meeting. Senator Morton, Congressman Coburn, Hon. A. G. Porter and others, at the Republican meeting. The campaign has been hotly contested throughout. Both parties are sanguine.

FROM GEORGIA.

SAVANNAH, Oct. 7.—Two negroes have made affidavit that Republicans were prevented from voting at the late election, and warrants have been issued for the arrest one magistrate and one free holder, under the enforcement act.

FROM ARKANSAS.

LITTLE ROCK, October 7.—The State ticket recently placed in the field by the Liberal Republicans is the all absorbing theme. There are rumors that Mr. Brooks, the Reform candidate, intends to withdraw from the contest, and leave the field to the Liberal and Grant tickets. The former is generally accepted by the Democrats and Liberal Republicans.

Major General Nathaniel P. Banks is making himself quite prominent as a Greeley orator. If the political warfare of General Banks is not more effective than his military campaigns in the last war, it will not help Mr. Greeley much. From first to last General Banks' military career was but a succession of shameful blunders and disastrous defeats. He did more than any other man on the Union side to prolong the war, and is responsible for millions of property and thousands of human lives uselessly sacrificed.

BETTER LATE THAN NEVER.—A committee of Philadelphia merchants, among whom is Mr. George H. Stuart, have carefully investigated all the charges of fraud and peculation made against Hartranft, the Republican candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania, and have completely exonerated him from all blame. Mr. Stuart is known all over the country as a merchant of great eminence, and he has been prominently identified with many of the national charitable and religious associations. A report signed by him will go far to relieve Gen. Hartranft from the foul aspersions cast upon him by the Democratic papers, and that portion of the Republican press which is controlled by his personal foes.

Political Meeting.—Last night the citizens of Maroa were favored with stirring addresses by C. C. McComas, Esq., of this city, and Hon. Michael Donahue, of Clinton. The hall was well filled, the most of whom were Republicans, in whom there is no guile. Mr. McComas was earnest in his effort, and the contrast between Grant and Greeley was almost too much for the Democratic element present. Mr. Donahue's speech was full of good things, but the showing up of the ridiculous "Reformers," who claim that the Republicans are thieves, was amusing to honest people, but the "Liberals" went away sorrowful, for they had great possessions with which to influence men in their favor at the Cincinnati convention. The meeting was a success. Mr. John Orr was chairman.

A DELEGATE to Congress is to be elected in the District of Columbia to-day, the candidates being Norton P. Chipman, present delegate, Republican, and John W. Lebarnes, Liberal. The vote for delegate in 1871 stood 15,199 Republican, to 11,104 Democrat—a Republican majority of 4,092.

DAKOTA Territory elects a delegate to Congress to-day. The Republican majority was 927 at the election in 1870.

TO
MESSRS. HALLET, DAVIS & Co.

Gentlemen:—Having had the opportunity to listen to your Pianos, under the playing of Herr Franz Bendel and Madame Arabella Goddard, at the World's Peace Jubilee, and also used them as accompaniment to my voice in a room of less size, it gives me pleasure to add my testimony to their superiority over any other Pianos I have heard or used.

MESSRS. HALLET, DAVIS & CO.:
Gentlemen:—It gives me extreme pleasure that I am able to compliment you with manufacturing the best Pianos I ever saw in my life.
Regarding technique and tone, I believe your instruments will always far excel all other manufactures of the kind.
(Signed) H. SARO,
Royal Prussian Musical Director.

FRANZ ABT

AND THE
Hallet, Davis & Co. Pianos.

This eminent German song writer, author of "When the Swallows Homeward Fly," & c., says:
"One of the most pleasant surprises that have been afforded me in America has been in the listening to the magnificent Pianos manufactured in this country. Their reputation in Europe has always been of the first order, but it was not until my arrival here that I was given an opportunity to hear and carefully judge of all their merits.
"In the superb instruments manufactured by Hallet, Davis & Co., and used at all the concerts of the Great Boston Jubilee, there was combined a strength and purity of tone, elegance of finish, and those peculiar lasting qualities of rich sound and elaborate general workmanship—without which no Piano can be considered thoroughly good—such as I have never known to be surpassed. I believe that Pianos to be seen at absolute perfection as it is possible for the instrument to be brought."
(Signed) FRANZ ABT.

Franz Bendel

AND THE
Hallet, Davis & Co. Pianos.

During my sojourn at Boston, at the time of the World's Peace Jubilee, it was of the greatest interest to me to become acquainted with and play the Grand Piano of Messrs. Hallet, Davis & Co. I was filled with astonishment that these Grand Pianos were so grand in their power of tone that they filled the vast spaces of the Coliseum—the largest concert hall in the world—and that they perfectly satisfy every demand made regarding touch, delicacy of expression, and power of tone.
I coincide with the opinion of Dr. Franz Liszt and other celebrated Pianists, who, in their judgment, have placed these instruments among the first and most excellent manufactured in America.
(Signed) FRANZ BENDEL.

REPUBLICAN MEETING AT BOODY.

BOODY, ILL., Oct. 5th, 1872.

The meeting of the Republicans at Boody, October 3d, was a magnificent affair—a brilliant success—throwing far into the background the little Democratic meeting of Sept 27th

During the day of October 3d the Republicans of Blue Mound township turned out and raised a Grant and Oglesby pole 72 feet high, (some 12 to 15 feet higher than the Confederate pole raised here not long since,) and run up a fine flag made by the Republican ladies of Boody and vicinity. In the meantime the warehouse of Binkley, Nientker & Co. was prepared for the reception of the vast crowd that was destined to be gathered together here Nor did we have long to wait, for soon the loyal masses began pouring in from all directions. Captain Ashmead, of Macon, made his appearance with his fine company of Tanners, headed with martial music, numbering over sixty They all rallied around the flag and gave three rousing cheers for Grant, Wilson and Oglesby, and three groans for Greeley, and then repaired to the warehouse to hear the speeches

Mr A Harris, of Macon, led off with a vigorous speech, showing up Greeley and Brown, and Jacob Frick Next in order was a speech by Mr. Wuensch. After a few remarks in English, he let loose in the German language, and those who understood the German tongue said it was a very fine effort He made a good impression, if we may judge from a remark made by a prominent Greeleyite, (a grain buyer of this place,) who said "It was not right or fair for the Republicans to have Mr Wuensch speak to the Germans of this town, as he (Mr W) was a preacher — But he still persisted that "we (the Greeleyites) will beat you in November next, which reminded me of a cowardly man I know, who, after provoking a fight, and getting very badly whipped, but not wanting to own up, cried out "Take him off, but I am'nt whipped!" Rev Mr W's speech had a fine effect on the Germans here, uniting them solid for Grant They cheered him lustily

We were next favored by an excellent speech from Mr C C McComas, Republican candidate for County Attorney who showed things up in their true light, giving facts and figures for proof of his position He showed the difference between the Greeley of 1856 and the Greeley of 1872, and proved that if Greeley should be elected, with the aid of the so called Liberals, he would restore to the South all they lost by the war He quoted from Mr Greeley's own speeches, noting the achievements of the present administration, the reduction of the public debt and taxes, and wound up with a tribute to Grant and Oglesby, after which three cheers were given for the speakers and the Republican nominees

The number present was estimated at from 250 to 300, and taken in all it was a grand affair, and will show its results in November

The contest in this precinct will be very close indeed, it having been quite evenly divided for some years, yet, notwithstanding we have lost a good many votes by change of residence, we will give a majority for Grant and Wilson More anon

A LOOKER ON

Lectures—We are informed by the ladies of the Library Association that they will soon be before us with season tickets for a lecture course We are not advised as to the names of the lecturers engaged, but the great financial success of the course last winter should encourage the ladies to venture further and secure none but first-class talent If, in addition to this, they will only set their faces with determination against the "reserved seat" nuisance, and thus prevent a recurrence of the disgraceful scenes which were enacted around the box office last year, they will deserve the patronage of the public in a still greater degree

Harristown All Right.—Last evening, W C Johns and D L Bunn spoke to the people of Harristown The school house was crowded, and the strictest attention was paid. Mr Johns spoke about an hour in his usual happy way after which D L Bunn entertained and instructed the audience on the political questions of the day The confederates have lost all hopes of doing anything in Harristown We may count on a largely reduced Democratic majority in that part of the county.

Married—In Decatur Oct 5th, by Rev D P Bunn, Mr JEREMIAH F PRICE, of Chicago, to Miss MARIE LOUISE SEYMOUR, of St Louis.

Runaway—Last evening a team of horses started to run from near Priest's mill They were stopped before any damage was done

To Attorneys—We will publish chancery and other legal notices in our Daily at the same rates as are charged for similar publications in our Weekly edition

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

For the relief and cure of all derangements in the stomach, liver, and bowels. They are a mild aperiant, and an excellent purgative. Being purely vegetable, they contain no mercury or mineral whatever. Much serious sickness and suffering is prevented by their timely use; and every family should have them on hand for their protection and relief, when required. Long experience has proved them to be the safest, surest, and best of all the Pills with which the market abounds. By their occasional use, the blood is purified, the corruptions of the system expelled, obstructions removed, and the whole machinery of life restored to its healthy activity. Internal organs which become clogged and sluggish are cleansed by Ayer's Pills, and stimulated into action. Thus incipient disease is changed into health, the value of which change, when reckoned on the vast multitudes who enjoy it, can hardly be computed. Their sugar-coating makes them pleasant to take, and preserves their virtues unimpaired for any length of time, so that they are ever fresh, and perfectly reliable. Although searching, they are mild, and operate without disturbance to the constitution or diet or occupation.

Full directions are given on the wrapper to each box, how to use them as a Family Physic, and for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor, and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach, and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action, or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back, and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings, they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression, a large dose should be taken, as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion, and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.

SECOND:
All their "scales," peculiarities of construction, and various improvements, have been copied by nearly all the American piano manufacturers, and also by a large number of celebrated European makers. As an inconvertible proof of the great superiority of the New Over-Strung Piano System introduced by Steinway & Sons, the fact may be stated that, at the Paris Exposition, out of eleven exhibitors of Pianos constructed after the Steinway System, two received Gold Medals (the first and third prizes), and eight received silver medals, while, of over three hundred pianos exhibited on the old plan of construction, with straight strings, only three received gold medals, and twenty-two silver medals—a proportion of
